There is no evidence that permission was duly sought and obtained. Was it given orally, or was it documented in writing? Provide proof, e.g. cite a letter or certificate to that effect. Authors have taken the images from the Internet. Under Results Line 91, it is stated ...and Taenia spp. (Plates 1-6). The source of these images is not given. Moreover, below the 6 images, lies the title concerning the images. The source is not given here either. Is this not plagiarism? I believe that there is a fee that is charged by the owner by using such images by a third party.
