

Editor's Comment:

One thing that these accomplished authors need to focus more attention on is the appropriate punctuation of areas involving references. These were done incorrectly throughout the manuscript revision and I have corrected them on my attached edits. I have also made grammar, mechanical and wording edits throughout. It would be my wish that the authors take note of these for future efforts.

Author's feedback:

We sincerely appreciate your kind effort and detailed review works. The corrections are effected.