| Compulsory REVISION comments | This article covers a wide array of relevant information on Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) in the context of Kurdistan Region of Iraq. The article reads well in terms of writing style, expression, structure, referencing, etc. It contributes to a high volume of knowledge relevant to Kurdistan and meets all applicable standards in the areas of originality, ethics.....very interesting, robust and technically sound with a wide range of readership. Above all, the article is publishable and I strongly recommend that it should be published without a revision. |                                                                                                                                                                               |
