-In the first paragraph of material and methods (n=101) is mentioned. The number of included patients is a RESULT and should be moved to RESULTS section. -Please substitute Mann-Whitny by Mann-Whitney. -Please define abbreviation in the first time they appear in the text. Example: Serum alanine transaminase (ALT), ALT has also been correlated with the degree of histological inflammation in the liver. Long-term elevation in serum transaminases, especially alanine transaminase (ALT), ALT. I suggest the new review, including Language editing.	The number of included patients is now omitted from material and methods and moved to RESULTS section. ALT is abbreviated first time as it they appear in the text as per suggestion. Language editing/check is done as per suggestion
