

Editor's Comment:

The manuscript should be edited carefully as a professional manner.

The authors should write the manuscript more carefully.

I have the following 14 comments. Please correct the manuscript and respond each comment precisely.

1] all three statistics columns on Table 2;

Please neatly and vertically align all statistics columns at the decimal points.

Thus, readers are able to read the values effectively and meaningfully.

2] et al. throughout text;

"et al" should be "et al."

3] Table 3;

Please carefully and neatly align "male", "female", and "Total" vertically.

Thus, readers are able to read the values effectively.

4] Table 4;

Please carefully and neatly align "female" and "Total" like "male" column.

Thus, readers are able to read the values effectively.

5] Table 5;

Please vertically and neatly align "male" column like "female" and "Total" columns.

Thus, readers are able to read the values effectively.

7] Conclusion and Recommendations

Please rewrite "conclusions" and "recommendation" separately and clearly.

The current one is not well organized and written regarding conclusions and recommendations.

8] conclusions;

"conclusion" should be "conclusions".

9] Contribution;

The author's contributions should not be the table.

It should be a paragraph. The current one is not a professional style.

10] Throughout all references;

All online citations should include the access date.

The current one is not a professional style.

The horizontal line of Figure 2 is missing.

There should not be any line space between the title and the sources.

12] Figure 1;

There should not be any line space between the title and the sources.

13] 1. Overview of Tanzania and the objectives of this study/research;

"1. Overview of Tanzania" should be "Intorduction".

This section shlud clearly and explicitly state the objectives of research/study.

14] Abstract;

- 14-1. This descriptive study/research should include some policy implications at the end of abstract not only one.
- 14-2. In addition, rewrite and shorten the abstract more effectively and meaningfully.
- 14-3. "It is very unfortunate...." Is very subjective way to write an academic research paper. It should be objective. Rewrite them.
