<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Use APA style in citation throughout the study</li><li>• Use APA style in the references</li><li>• Section "2.5" has to be moved under "Literature review"</li></ul>	Sir, I already explained that APA style is not the recommended style by this Journal. Hence, the style I used in my manuscript for both citation and referencing are in accordance to the proposed one by the Journal. For 2.5 section as a sub-section, I think it is under literature review. Generally, 2.1 (literature review) is the main heading or section. Other sections such as 2.2,2.3.2.4 2.5 are related sub-sections that come under 2.1. Therefore, I suggest it should remain as 2.5.

As per the guideline of editorial office we follow VANCOUVER reference style for our paper.
