The manuscript is improved, though the authors did not effect some corrections. The work is inundated with grammatical blemishes, ranging from long sentences to poor punctuations. Authors should ensure that grammatical anomalies are properly corrected. There are so many unnecessary paragraphs; one sentence, one paragraph. Figure 4 has no reference. Some cited references are not listed in the references' section, while some listed references are not cited.	The grammatical anomalies have been taken care of. The unnecessary paragraphs have been merged. Figure 4 has been deleted as suggested by one of the reviewers since it is just mere literature. It will be helpful if our attention is drawn to the cited but not referenced lists.
