PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
1. The corrections have been carried out, but still I feel there are some grammatical mistake in sentence formation. Eg: original sentence: The awareness for azolla sp (Azolla pinnata) cultivation had created among the rural people by Coochbehar Krishi Vigyan Kendra, West Bengal by conducted residential and non-residential training programme on successful azolla production. Reframed sentence: Residential and Non-residential training programme was conducted to create awareness on Azolla cultivation among the rural farmers by Coochbehar Krishi Vigyan Kendra, West Bengal. 2. Addition of recent research papers in the field of study would give more validity to the paper. 3. The paper is not a review paper- it is strongly a research paper since you have conducted a field study.
