	- The title of the research article is interesting. Authors have selected a good title, but they did not present the materials well. - The language of the article needs lots of revision, Capitalization, punctuation as well as spelling need more attention by authors. Few examples: - The first line of the article (It was an attempt to examine the profitability and factor....) Authors should be aware that there are more than one factor. (factors) - Another example : Capitalization: (Chittagong district) District should be always capitalized in the text. - Line 13 of the (Abstract) - Marketed surplus of milk was found to be an important element in the study of raw milk marketing. What is meant by this sentence. - The last line of the (Abstract) : (As a result, most of the surplus milk absorbs s by the sweetmeat shops ..) Should be absorbed ed	Correction have been made Suggestions have been incorporated in main text Correction have been made Correction have been made Correction have been made
