PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The author(s) has done most of the corrections pointed out in the earlier version of this manuscript but care must be taken to make sure that all references used for this study are all captured in the references section. The style of referencing in some cases are not in accordance with the conventional way of referencing like using the sign "&" instead of the word "and" is not acceptable. Please change all these in the revised version of this manuscript. With this, this manuscript may be given to the editor for final decision. Congratulations to the author(s).	I appreciate you taking out time to go through the work. The comments are valuable. The corrections have been effected on the manuscript. Thank you for the inputs. It has improved the quality of the manuscript.
