PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
There have not been any noticeable improvement since the last version. I have given a few comments in the text, but I can't go through everything. The authors should write a much shorter paper, and avoid speculative interpretations. It is not necessary to show all results (only important ones) and it is possible to show most results as graphs, could be many small graphs if needed. The English is still very poor and makes large parts of the manuscript completely incomprehensible.	Thank you for your valuable comments. We have tried to correct the paper according to the comments. Except last two table those show the economic analysis, other are converted to graphs. We have also tried to make the paper understandable. Looking forward for your valuable comments.
