PART 1: Review Comments

| | Reviewer's comment | Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here) |
|-------------------------------------|---|---|
| Compulsory REVISION comments | Introduction: reference should be provided and it should be current. Also, gap the study wants to fill should be made clear. Methodology: state the variables included in the study. Show the one that is dependent and independent variable Result: Table 4.6 result should be compared or contrast with previous empirical or theoretical literature. Also, Fig 4.1 should be explained Reference: The following are missing in reference <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ambunya (2012) 2. Manbo (2012) 3. Komolafe (1996) 4. International Monetary Fund (2009) | Table 4.1 is only describing the behaviour of the data and it is considered as one of the pre-estimation test. Thus, I don't think more explanation is needed there. In Toda Yamamoto is a dynamic model which interchange the dependent to independent and independent to dependent but under the analysis an equation of preference will be interpreted with reference to dependent and independent variable. The emphasis on the table 4.6 has been clarified under the discussion of finding. Manbo (2012) and Ambunya (2012) has been replaced with current references while the others observed have been included in the references |
| Minor REVISION comments | Result: Table 4.3 results should be arranged well. I highlight some of minor correction that must be made in the study | |
| Optional/General comments | The study is timely because of the challenges that are confronting African economy. | |
