Compulsory REVISION comments	A review on microbial strategies against immune system - The title that includes 'the martyrdom of St Julia' is catchy but of no value Apart from a paragraph that describes her martyrdom, the rest of the manuscript has nothing to do with her - The review is too general and of common knowledge without added value. Therefore, most subtopics were written superficially. Furthermore, most figures were taken from elsewhere, and should be acknowledged
Minor REVISION comments
