Compulsory REVISION comments	The conclusion makes no sense – not even mentioning racism and slavery. I think the writer needs to review the paper sentence by sentence with a native English speaker/writer. The paper as written does not rise to an acceptable standard of English. Line 6: How can Twain be a satire? His work could be satirical, but he can't be a walking breathing satire. Line 7: "study aims to attempt the racism and slavery of" How can you attempt the racism? The bibliography is replete with sloppy mistakes. For example: Line 186: * instead of ' Line 188: Nark instead of Mark; why is there a . in front of America? Line 192: Hack instead of Huck And many more mistakes. A native speaker would change these.	OK Noted
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments
