ABSTRACT As per the abstract section of the manuscript, I would suggest authors consult earlier similar publications as for what concerns “study design” & “place and duration of study” RESULTS As mentioned in earlier comments, it would be better to categorize the various data in fewer tables.	ABSTRACT The place and duration of study have been collapsed into study design with a little paraphrasing. RESULTS A nice suggestion to collapse the data into fewer tables but please, let it be the way it is, so as to avoided a crowded table, as each table is quite unique and specific. Thanks.
