Compulsory REVISION comments	In this MS, the authors describe the Antibacterial Activities of Coelomic Fluid of Local Earthworms against Disease-Causing Microorganisms. The authors tried to establish that some of the coelomic fluid components are useful for pharmaceutical applications and they can be useful for purifying the biomolecules to introduce in the field of pharmaceuticals. The sound of the work is very good and could be helpful for the researchers in a pharmaceutical field if the results are accurate, however; the authors were failed to establish the findings from the experiments. The introduction, results, and discussions were not written well. There are not enough references/background to support their results. The figures were not stated in the results section. It is not clear which figure is which result. The discussion was incomplete without having any references to compare or support their findings. References were not cited in the text properly, some are mentioned by numbers, some are mentioned by authors name. It could be eligible for this journal as a short note if the authors able to revise the manuscript following the comments as mentioned above.
