Compulsory REVISION	Please clarify the Plagiarism:
comments
	Plagiarism result has been given in attach file.
Minor REVISION comments	The study is about the inhibition of aluminium corrosion in hydrochloric acid solution by Eremomastax polysper ma leaf extract by using weight loss and thermometric methods. In the srudy they did not use any electrochemical study however their presentations with weight loss method is fair. They used Eremomastax polysperma Leaf Extract as inhibitor but they did not mention about the contents of extract.
