

Editor's Comment:

This article provides some valuable information. But no any format or order. Not having a proper discussion. In our journal aren't provides any word limit and a format for case report. If it can be fulfilled can be considered for the publication.

I know articles are important for novel journal. Initially we need to be patient and accept. But for that also article must have a format.

This is my final decision - if can re-format can consider for publication.
