PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
i. Author should follow the comments/suggestions made on the body of the manuscript for necessary corrections. ii. Earlier, it was suggested to include the geographical location of the experiment along with sowing date but the author has not met-up the requisites. Please send it again to the author for its necessary corrections. After correction, the article may be published.	I have carefully read the revised manuscript and not found any further corrections. As per comment no 2 the location of the experiment site Lucknow University campus is mentioned along with date of sowing. But as per requirement of geographical location the state- Uttar Pradesh, country-India, latitude 26.8467° and longitude 80.9462° have been included in the revised manuscript.
