

Editor's comments

Accepted after Minor Revision

In Line 48-49 you write

St Thomas Aquinas defined law as "Nothing else than an ordinance of reason for the common good, made by him who has care of the community, and promulgated" [3].

Aquinas is not in references you indicate literal words from the author and you don't indicate the page

Please Review the full text

The text, excluding the abstract, if required, can be divided into numbered sections with brief headings. Starting from introduction with section 1. subsections should be numbered (for example 2.1 (then 2.1.1, 2.1.2, 2.2, etc.), up to three levels.

All references should follow the journal style: http://www.sciencedomain.org/page/general-guideline-for-authors#Type_of_papers

You must to correct all the references as the journal's cite style indicate

You should review the citation style of references.

Author's Feedback

- 1) The page number of all direct quotations in the article will be duly provided and highlighted in color yellow in the revised versión 2 a recommended
- 2) The various sections in the article will be divided into number sections with each of them having a brief headline
- 3) The references in the artilce has been reviewed in the revised versión 2 to meet the journal's style of refrencing as recommended.
- 4) The language and gramatical errors has alos be taken dealt with in the revised versión 2.