PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	This is an important subject and worthy of publication—but not in its present form. The author throughout has made several highly political and inflammatory comments vis-à-vis the Israeli-Palestinian conflict and has shown his/her favours and predilections. Scholarly objectivity has thus been sacrificed to political views and thus, overall, political orientations. The language used throughout is highly prejudicial to his/her analyses of the posters. Secondly, there are any number of places where documentation and citation are needed (e.g. numbers of casualties in the various conflicts). Thirdly, the extensive bibliography of sources is impressive but is not integrated into the text as to where and how these sources were used. Fourthly, the author is apparently not a native English speaker/writer. This is not a critique but an observation. Overall, the manuscript would benefit in several places by editorial language correction and possible rewrite. If the author is seriously committed to publication, then this submission needs to be thoroughly revised with a focus on objective analyses of the posters themselves, what they reveal and what they suggest to the reader/observer.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- The Topic of the paper is associated with Political situation in Middle East which is a result of unjust and occupation.</li> <li>- The discussion is rationally to be mixed with political issues as poster is a message and artwork.</li> <li>- For English language, checked and revised for a better quality.</li> <li>- Sometimes, Art becomes a main tool in Political message and can not be separated in discussion.</li> <li>-</li> </ul>
