PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	Comments 01 The manuscript is written with objectivity, with a direct dialogue and an appreciable writing. The author demonstrates a profound knowledge in the topic and although the camp is much larger study makes some examples intelligently and easily understood. Consider the current, informative and interesting article.
Minor REVISION comments	Comments 02 Are marked in yellow some terms, although correct, whose writing can generate some conflict in time to translate it into some languages. There can be no translation. So I suggest that the author is encouraged to seek another word to replace the word in the text. Comments 03 Moringa The term is a proper noun and so should be written with highlighted quotes, for example "Moringa", as written up ahead in the text "Moringa oleifera", and whose proper written form are two separate words Comments 04 The author must, in compliance with the instructions for authors, organize references, either in terms of standardization or tab. Occurs the lack of standardization in font size and spaces between words. Locally in the references, marked in yellow for some observations that the	Some terms such as de-husking for instance are the terms used in the patent title. They are technical terms and difficult to change. Done, although in many text, the quotes are not used. Only a capital letter for the name Moringa. Done according to the remarks in yellow in the manuscript
