PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR’S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors’ response to final evaluator’s comments
The typographical errors have been identified and highlighted in yellow. What I am not too sure of is if the corrections have been properly effected since the highlights did not show the corrections. I hope and trust that they would be corrected. However, on page 12 of the revised paper, line four, word eleven, the word “our findings” was written as ‘ourfindingis’ and this must be corrected before final acceptance.	We thank an anonymous referee for pointing out the typos on our previous manuscript. The problem of the typographical errors have been corrected on this revised (version 2) manuscript, which may be caused, at least partly, by the different technical settings in our computers here.
