SDI Review Form 1.6

PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments	• Introduction should status the main research objective and make a short presentation of the analyzed subject. In addition, in this case, introduction is too short and it is full with quotations. Introduction should status the main reasons and aspects, which made the author(s) to carry out this analysis. • Please reconsider this part according to the scientific research criteria. • It is recommended that in the introduction to be treated more appropriate and in a personal approaches for the author this subject, more than quoting literature. • The discussion is good but the contributions should be clearly stated and more detailed in the conclusion section. • Author (s) should be more explicit about how the results of this study influence promoting urban tourism in this Amman area. • The references are covering up to date the subject but should be more appropriate to the subject analyzed and more representative for this area of research. Not all the references are typed in consistent with those formats requested by the British Journal of Economics, Management & Trade, it is suggested that the author(s) check the references carefully and make the needed corrections to fit the journal criteria.	1. We wrote the main research objective in the first paragraph of the introduction 2. We did it as you asked. 3. We did some amendments for the introduction. 4. We did it as you asked. 5. We changed some of them to be more explicit as you told us.
