| Compulsory REVISION comments | The name of the article “Eta-Einstien S-Manifolds and Spectral Geometry” is appropriate. Abstract section is appropriate. But it is too short.1Introduction , 2 S-manifolds , 3 Main Results are good.Calculations are performed correctly. | Some words are added in Abstract.According to other Reviewers, some words are also added to Introduction.                                                                           |
| Minor REVISION comments      | 1.References in the article should be ordered.2. We examined that in....3. Theorem 1.1. proof should be given and resources are taken.4. Reference should be fixed.Please see the attached file                                 | All corrected.                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Optional/General comments    | After these corrections are made I agree for published the article.                                                                                                                                                                                 | Thank you                                                                                                                                                                                   |
