

Editor's Comment:

In my opinion in "results and discussion" there is no discussion. First part of the discussion is to present results but after that we need to compare our results with other data, publications. In this case it should be company report not scientific article. Without discussion part this work cannot be published as "research paper".

Editor's Details:

Dr. Jakub Kostecki
Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering, University of Zielona Góra, Poland