	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	Sentence repetition in abstract. Gillie's temporal approach and active physiotherapy should be removed from keywords. Where the framing of sentences is not appropriate. How 3D CT scan is come under initial investigation?? Is it available at all trauma centres? Sentence should be changed accordingly. In given article, only reference of two pubmed article is mentioned for reported cases in literature while there is one more recent article which can be added in reference (Fractures of the mandibular coronoid process: A two centres study by Paolo Boffano) The case report section needs to be written properly. Moreover, the treatment is not described properly, how arch stabilize?? Any external fixation ?? A proper treatment procedure must be stated for completeness of the case. In figure 2. How depression is seen in presence of swelling ?	Thank you for your comments. We have deleted the repeated sentence. Removed Gillie's temporal approach and active physiotherapy from keywords Changes made in lines 47-49. Corrections have been made in lines 30-31 and reference added. Thank you for your comments. As a protocol followed in our institute, zygomatic arch fractures are reduced solely by using Gillie's temporal approach and closed reduction. The fig.2 was taken 3 days after Anti-inflammatory therapy. The same has been corrected and highlighted in the manuscript.
Minor REVISION comments	It also has spelling mistakes like the word 'Trismus' is misspelled in line no. 46 below figure 2 and comminuted in line no. 84. Retromandibular approach is through posterior border of parotid and not through anterior border.	Changes have been done and highlighted in yellow. Changes have been done and highlighted in yellow.
