Title of the Manuscript:	METASTATIC SIGMOID COLON CANCER PRESENTED AS INCARCERATED INGUINAL HERNIA – CASE REPORT
Type of Article:	Case study

PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The authors improved the description and the discussion of this case substantially. However, their writing still deserves a revision because the manuscript has many grammar errors regarding the syntax and parallelism. They begin sentences with numerals when we should spell the numbers at the beginning of sentences. They also make excessive use of passive voice making some statements weak and hard to read. I would like to suggest the use of appropriate keywords. I went to MeSH terms of PubMed, and I have the following suggestions: Adenocarcinoma, Carcinoma, Colon Sigmoid, Groin, Inguinal hernia
