PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments Line 32 Paragraph starting Line 46 – using 2001 WHO guidelines – too old a reference. Author needs to check CDC Guidelines Line 101 – what is the treatment? Line 105 what antispasmodic used? Line 138 – 140 – not current in literature 2018.	Vaginal discharge is a normal physiologic finding – the author uses it as a problem throughout – need to use “abnormal” many times throughout article Another example is line 69 – need to insert abnormal
Minor REVISION comments Line 20 – word after sensation needs to change from “while” to with. Line 23-24 “both partners” confusing – would be patient and her partner Line 32 – change word it to vaginitis Line 41 – the word “the” is needed before word lower; comma needed after vomiting Line 57 – typo Secnidazole spelled wrong Line 62 – grammar problem need “of” before azithromycin and “for” after it Line 65 – need the word “are after kit and no space between sentences Line 77 – comma needed after “treatment” Line 127 – need word “and” before epigastric Line 156 – need word “complaints” after discharge Line 180 Practice should not be capitalized and need word was instead of is	The result paragraph is confusing to the reader. Sentence run on – suggest cleaning it up.
Optional/General comments This paper will be read internationally – needs up to date references as specified and please see comments about in red.
