

Editor's Comment:

The manuscript should be revised and resubmitted.

1] Tables 4 and 5

Please neatly and carefully align all numbers at the decimal points vertically.

2] There one of two sentences' paragraphs.

1 The one sentence paragraph does not express meaningful context. Rearrange the paragraph with other.

2 In general, one sentence paragraph does not contribute any context matter. Merge one sentence paragraph with another and rewrite the paragraph with a more meaningful context.

3 Paragraphs provide breathers from long stretches of text and indicate key changes in the development of a thesis. Other purposes are:

3-1: To introduce one of the main points supporting an essay's central idea, its thesis and to develop the point.

3-2: Within a group of paragraphs centering one main point, to introduce and develop a key example or other important evidence.

3] Discussions and Conclusion should be separately written.

4] Carefully state limitations of the study in detail.

5] Carefully state policy implications of the study in detail.
