Compulsory REVISION comments	-“However, there are only few studies which have reported a relationship between MPV depression and anxiety disorder in the literature” The present sentence is not supported by references. Please provide it. -The control group should be more homogeneous with the case groups in terms of number of participants. -I wonder if the subjects in the cases groups were taking drugs. I think you should include this data and stratify the samples also for this. - Re-organization of Discussion section is needed. Please discuss clearly and describe in a succinct manner. It doesn't integrates appropriately findings and implications but it is repetitious of the introduction. -References are old and should be revised throughout the Manuscript
Minor REVISION comments	-In all the tables there is not a proper legend. Please add Mean and SD where is appropriate.
