Type of Article:	Original Research Article

PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
As I have commented for this manuscript, expressing a trade name of goods in a research article is not legally appropriate unless from the manufacturer himself . Either good or bad result related to the product has indirect conflict of interest. And I do not think there is only Close Up toothpaste marketed in the authors' country.	The product name Close Up will be put as initials (CU) while the Competing Interests Disclaimer is also included. This eliminates any issue associated with litigation. Our country is a third world country and we do not have such a national ethics committee, and as such are not mandated to pass through that procedure for use of animal in research, but at the university level, we submit such proposals for evaluation by a panel that permits such research. In this case, that was done.
