PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The manuscript is well improved after revision. But, there are still many careless and grammatical mistakes through manuscript. Authors should check the manuscript more carefully before submission. Careful submission is better than careless quick submission. 1. It is not necessary to capitalize words before showing the abbreviated form. For example, "Polymerase Chain Reaction (PCR)" should be "polymerase chain reaction (PCR)". "Tuberculosis" should be "tuberculosis". In addition, there are unnecessary capitalized words through the manuscript. 2. Once the abbreviated form is shown, use the abbreviated form through the manuscript. 3. Format of References is not correct. Some journal name is abbreviated, but some are not abbreviated, etc. 4. Page 2, line 4. "swollen" reads "swollen". 5. Page 2, lines 7,8,10. "figure 1" and "figure 2" should be "Fig. 1" and "Fig. 2". 6. Page 2, line 6. The sentence is grammatically incorrect. Correct it. 7. Page 2, line 17. "negative Ziehl Neelsen" should be "Ziehl neelsen staining negative". 8. Page 3, line 5. Is "maleol." correct? 9. Page 3, caption for Fig. 2. Remove "Abbreviations: MRI, Magnetic resonance imaging".
