PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The manuscript has been slightly modified with the modification/introduction of some sentences as well as histological images. The introduction begins with a confusion in the definition between osteoarthritis and osteoporosis. Moreover, the acronym OA is related to OsteoArthritis; the work, instead, is related to Osteoporosis. In the Feed-back Author's comment, the authors answered generically to the previous comments of the reviewer, apart the introduction of histologic sections (not good quality pictures – some of them show artifacts). The English language has not improved.	We have tried tremendously to improve the quality of this manuscript based on your review comments. The mentioned areas have been worked on and they are much more improved now. We appreciate your meticulous reviews of the manuscript.
