FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
1. While improved, the manuscript is still full of grammatical errors and still needs considerable editing. The authors need to rewrite the manuscript and correct all the grammatical errors with careful proofreading. Please resubmit only if fully corrected. As mentioned previously, the help of an expert in English language may be needed. Following are some of the examples of incorrect English usage in the revised draft- 2. Abstract-results section last sentence, please correct to" getting pregnant" instead of get pregnant. 3. Figure 2 legend- "most of the respondents mentioned that they were obtained information about STIs including HIV/ AIDS majority from internet" Please remove the word "were"before obtained as this is grammatically incorrect. 4. "Figure 3 determined the distribution of media awareness among the respondents. Among the 150 respondents, 118 (78.7%) know both HIV/AIDS and STIs, but 32 (21.3%) knew only HIV/AIDS and they were not aware." The sentence is incorrect and needs to be replaced by- "Among the 150 respondents, 118 (78.7%) knew about both HIV/AIDS and STIs, but 32 (21.3%) knew only about HIV/AIDS..." Also please complete the sentence "and they were not aware..." About What??? 5. " Figure 3: Distribution of media that teach to understand about HIV/AIDS Awareness about reproductive health This survey was investigated the reproductive health" Please use correct English here-please delete "to understand" in the first sentence and add the word " and" before awareness. Please correct the second sentence as follows- "this survey investigated...". This survey was investigated is incorrect English.
