PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The subject of this study is very important, however, the presentation of the manuscript must be strongly improved. -The English language must be improved. There are several relevant and serious errors that must be corrected. A native of the English language must correct the errors. -The agreement of an Ethics Committee is not clear. - The Introduction section is very short. It must be extended with recent references. - In the Discussion section, there are repetitions of the results. -In the reference section there are several mistakes. The authors must follow the guidelines of this journal. - There are minor errors to be corrected, as: - the "p" related to the statistic analyses must be in italic "p" - several sentences had an end point, but there is not space among the sentences. - The Tables must be corrected, the vertical lines and the horizontal lines of the center of the Tables must be deleted.
