PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	It is accepted to use „hot water emasculation“ not „hyperthermotherapy“	Means heat therapy. It is the application of any substance causing an increase in temperature. Hyperthermotherapy, which consists in the use of a particular source of heat, in this specific case hot water, to promote the increase of the temperature of the floral structure. This method is based on the difference in thermal sensitivity between the male and female part of the rice flower, where pollen grains are more sensitive to higher temperatures than stigma.
