FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
TOPIC: Suggested title "Influence of different coatings and storage temperatures on postharvest quality and shelf life of guava fruits" ABSTRACT: Authors need to polish words and sentences. There are grammatical errors. INTRODUCTION: The same previous grammatical errors that could not make reader understand the information therein still retained in this section. MATERIALS AND METHODS: In line 47, I had notified previously that it was incorrect to write it as "MATERIAL AND METHODS" but as "MATERIALS AND METHODS". Tenses are not ok. I don't think that authors have done thorough work concerning this. Line 80 "....0, 01 g..." be corrected. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION: Concerning Tables, authors are referred to the previous comments. For instance in line 292-295, "[6] to the evaluate the covering of guavas with protein films....." There are still a lot unvisited by authors. CONCLUSION: Authors need to polish grammar here too.	I title was it modified in agreement with the reviewer's suggestion. The grammar and English of the manuscript was corrected by a specialized company, being the capable work the publication. All of the grammatical mistakes that you/they hindered the reading of the manuscript was properly corrected by the specialized company in translation The term material and methods were corrected and modified by materials and methods The term 0,01g were corrected 0.01 The results were corrected according to the reviewers' suggestion
