PART 1: Review Comments

	Reviewer's comment	Author's comment (if agreed with reviewer, correct the manuscript and highlight that part in the manuscript. It is mandatory that authors should write his/her feedback here)
Compulsory REVISION comments	The manuscript is of potential interest to the readership of this journal, but there are major issues that must be addressed before the article could be published. 1/ * The literature review should be more carefully synthesised and structured. The use of sub-headings and signposting would help the reader to follow the argument being developed through the paper. 2/ * There does not appear to be an explicit theoretical framework. Currently the manuscript appears to be somewhat descriptive and a theoretical. 3/ * The final discussion and conclusion should make it clear how the findings contribute to new knowledge. 4/* The Methodology lacked suitable detail. 5/* Methodology of the central work is exposed appropriately. 6/* Research methodology based on research goals is poor on absent. 7/* More recent bibliography is necessary. Furthermore, the reference list is a little bit weak. Before I can make a final decision on the paper, please refer to more references and upload a new version. It is suggested that the author(s) can consider the following paper related to the teachers attitudes of using mobile learning to strengthen the background and conclusions of the study: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kalogiannakis, M. & Papadakis, S. (2019). Evaluating pre-service kindergarten teachers' intention to adopt and use tablets into teaching practice for natural sciences. Int. J. Mobile Learning and Organisation, 13, 1, 113–127. • Papadakis, S. (2018). Evaluating pre-service teachers' acceptance of mobile devices with regards to their age and gender: a case study in Greece. International Journal of Mobile Learning and Organisation, 12(4), 336-352. 8/* Recommendations should also be given for practice and further research. In preparing a revised manuscript, please also include a table of how you have responded to each of the issues listed above point by point. I look forward to receiving your revised manuscript in the near future.
