Compulsory REVISION comments
Minor REVISION comments
Optional/General comments	Traditional and complementary medicine is the summation of the knowledge, skills, and practices based on the theories, beliefs, and experiences indigenous to different cultures, used in the maintenance of health as well as in the prevention, diagnosis, improvement in the quality of life or treatment of physical and mental illness. The paper submitted for publication is a descriptive, cross-sectional survey study (research article) entitled as "Current Status of Traditional and Complementary Medicine use in Qassim Province, Saudi Arabia" is sufficiently interesting to justify its length and discussion. I have no hesitation in recommending that it be accepted for publication. Paper is suitable for publication in its current form. This research study is approved by the National Center for Complementary and Alternative Medicine (NCCAM), Ministry of Health, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia as mentioned in the manuscript. However in the article nowhere ethical committee registration number is found.	Ethical Committee Registration number is 224/19344, dated 10/03/1431 23/02/2010) highlighted in green in the manuscript. Thank you very much for your encouraging comments.
