Compulsory REVISION comments	The manuscript under this review is relevant to the subject matter of Physical Science International Journal. The subject of the study is up-to-date and it has been appropriately substantiated with reference to the present state of knowledge. Achieved purposes and reasons for the subject are defined clearly. Detailed comments: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Titles and units on axes should be added to figures 2, 3, 4, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14.</li> <li>2. Descriptions on figure 1 may not be readable in print version.</li> <li>3. There are not references to table 5 and 6 in the text.</li> </ol> The approach looks promising thus I would recommend acceptance pending the above corrections.	Thanks for the reviewer's comments. We really appreciate it. Based on other reviewer's feedback as well as yours, we already deleted some figures and replaced some by some better-quality figures. The units are on the axes of the figures and the title is on the description of each figure. All tables are referred and the description is clear now.
