Title of the Manuscript:	DFT Calculations of Mesembryanthemum nodiflorum compounds as Corrosion Inhibitors of Aluminum
Type of Article	Original Research Article

PART 2:

FINAL EVALUATOR'S comments on revised paper (if any)	Authors' response to final evaluator's comments
The authors only made the changes in sentences and spellings. The major revision which was to be done on the introduction was not touched by the authors. An introduction should capture the attention of readers after the abstract. Almost, if not all corrosion experts know about inhibitors, but not all know about various computational methods of predicting corrosion inhibition of various inhibitors. One or two paragraphs should be added to the introduction section.	All valuable remarks have been done Many thanks
