| Compulsory REVISION comments | I have now read the paper: "The electrodynamic vacuum Field theory approach and the Electron inertia problem revisited." The manuscript is 64 pages and 254 equations long. There is much new material and I think it will be suitable for publication after a revision. The English is not good. There are many very long sentences with the words in an unusual succession. I attach the manuscript with several suggestions for changes in the Language. |  |
