

Editor's Comment:

I looked at the paper and at the referee comments. The paper cannot be published in its present form. To be considered for publication, the authors have to:

1. Clearly show in the MS where are their corrections according to the referees' comments
2. Considerably shorten the abstract to focus on the interest of the study and the results. The details of the methods used should not be detailed in an abstract.

Editor's Details:

Dr. Daniel Beysens
OPUR International Organization for Dew Utilization, France